

KPCA pushes for Solar Power Farm in the Kings Park Industrial Area

In December, KPCA President Mike Rosato and Environmental Committee co-chair Steve Weber met with local and state officials to discuss our plan to build a solar power farm on top of Smithtown's landfill in the industrial area. Generating clean renewable energy on this site would establish a productive use for the property and provide tax relief for our residents. We are encouraged that this plan will move forward.